GENERAL INFORMATION

Each Congressional office uses a selection process for academy nominations designed to meet its own needs and standards. The different procedures are often confusing to applicants who apply to more than one source.

Misunderstandings can be avoided by carefully studying and following the instructions of each office.

PLEASE NOTE: By signing the application, you will have indicated an understanding and acceptance of nomination requirements as set forth by my office.

Because of the extreme competition for nominations, you are urged to apply to every nominating authority to you (both U.S. Senators, your local Congressman, and the Vice President.) Should your eligibility allow, you may also apply to the President. Ideally, students seeking a nomination should begin the Congressional and academy process in April of their junior year in high school.

For classes entering in the summer of 2002, I will have one vacancy each at the U.S. Air Force Academy, U.S. Military Academy, U.S. Naval Academy, and U.S. Merchant Marine Academy.

Contact with the admissions office of the academy of your preference is imperative. The academy will establish a file and forward general information and detailed admissions requirements, including a Prospective Candidate Questionnaire.

Selections are made competitively on the basis of academic performance, leadership potential, extra-curricular activities, physical fitness, and letters of recommendation. Ten names for each vacancy will be recommended by me for nomination. The final ranking and subsequent appointments will be at the discretion of the academies.

As outlined on page two, certain information must be provided for you to be considered an applicant. It is YOUR responsibility to submit the required information. All information must be received in my office by Friday, November 30, 2001.

In order that more Mississippi applicants have an opportunity to be reviewed by the academies, please let me know immediately if you are nominated by another authority. Additionally, should you change your career goals, please notify me. This will offer the opportunity to another student.
